Play Therapy!

with Dawn J Williamson LCSW, RPT-S

Learning objectives:

- Define play therapy as an evidenced based practice and demonstrate an understanding of the importance of play developmentally.
- Describe an example of how play therapy concepts might be applied in medical settings, and identify two or three activities that might be applied in both the exam room and the waiting room.
- Locate and refer to trained play therapists in various geographical areas through the Association for Play Therapy website.
